1. I understand that once I become a member of The Supreme Team I have the responsibility to present myself as a Leader.

Matthew 15:11 ESV

“It is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but what comes out of the mouth; this defiles a person.”

2. I understand that I may not post anything negative online via facebook, myspace, or any other route.

Proverbs 11:22 ESV

Like a gold ring in a pig's snout is a beautiful woman without discretion.

3. I understand that profanity is not becoming of a leader and will not be tolerated.

Colossians 3:8 “But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. “

4. I understand that purity is a valuable demonstration of maturity, values, and leadership.

Colossians 3:5 ESV

Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.

5. I understand that this is a CHRISTIAN leadership group and will conduct myself as a Christian.

2 Timothy 2:15 ESV

Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth.

6. I understand that I am responsible to be present at 80% of all community service projects in order to get certified documentation of membership for college reference.

2 Chronicles 15:7

“But you take courage! Do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded.”

7. I understand that I am to dress with casual business dress for community service projects. I understand that my wardrobe will go a LONG way towards my leadership presentation. I take the responsibility of requesting wardrobe instructions if there is any doubt.

1 Timothy 2:9 ESV

Likewise also that, women should adorn themselves in respectable apparel, with modesty and self-control, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or costly attire,

8. I will always treat my fellow team members with the upmost respect and never deny them dignity.

Ephesians 4:32 ESV

Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

9. If I discover that my team members or others are in anyway negatively impacted by my actions or words, I will do all that I can to examine myself and my approach.

John 8:7 ESV

And as they continued to ask him, he stood up and said to them, "Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her."

10. I understand that past mistakes, secrets, events, or activities of others are forgiven by God therefore are not my concern. I will give all the opportunity to change and to grow as Christians and as leaders.

Philippians 3:13 ESV

Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead,

11. I understand that I have a CLEAN SLATE when I enter this group, and it is present and future that I must answer for. I will strive to be more Christ Like as I move forward on this team.

Ephesians 4:22-24 ESV

To put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness

John 15:12 ESV

"This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you."

12. I understand that my parents are to be respected and honored and will not deny either action towards them.

Ephesians 6:1-4 ESV

Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. "Honor your father and mother" (this is the first commandment with a promise), "that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land." Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

13. I understand above all that to be a leader, I must be a follower, I must be humbled, and I must seek Christ.

James 4:6 ESV

But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

I will do all things in my power to walk in Christ's footsteps, lead others to Christ, and judge no one.

Dear Parents:

Please sign the following:

I understand that the Supreme Team is a leadership club. My teenager will be expected to conduct his/herself as a leader. I will comply with understanding if my teenager is faced with consequences of returning home in the event behaviors need correction. I will speak to my teen about leadership characteristics. I understand that all actions, words, and consequences generated by TST admin are examples of love and understanding and are strategically placed to help my teenager grow, learn, and develop as leaders. I understand that this is the time for learning leadership qualities, Christian character, and humility. This team is a training ground and I understand that my teen will face “reality discipline” as suggested by Dr. Kevin Leman. If my teen is not allowed to attend an event, I will not demonstrate animosity, but be patient as the consequential reality fertilizes my teen’s growth as a leader. In the event my teen faces demerit, I will understand that it is a process of building leadership qualities.
